

Watermelon Body Scrub Recipe

Trend Alert! Watermelon is HOT this summer and what better way to embrace this trend than make an easy watermelon themed sugar scrub!

Skill Level: Easy

Duration: 30 minutes

Makes: 16 oz. recipe, makes two 8 oz. pet jars

Ingredients:

- 7 oz. - Organic White Sugar
- 10 oz. - Foaming Bath Whip
- 1 TBSP - White Kaolin Clay
- 0.4 oz. - Watermelon Fragrance Oil
- 0.6 oz. - Germall Plus Preservative
- 3 drops - Extreme Green Liquid Soap Dye
- 15 drops - Watermelon Liquid Soap Dye

Equipment:

- Scale
- 1 Large Mixing Bowl
- 2 Smaller Mixing Bowls
- Measuring Spoon
- Stirring Spoons
- 2 - 8 oz. Plastic Pet Jars
- Piping bags or zip lock bags (optional)

Instructions:

1. Weigh and mix together in the large mixing bowl sugar, foaming bath whip, clay, germall plus and watermelon fragrance oil.
2. Split the batch in half and add watermelon soap dye to the batch in the large mixing bowl.
3. Split the remaining batch in half again
4. Leave one of the small batches white.
5. Color the other batch with extreme green liquid dye.
 - a. 50% of the scrub is Watermelon color
 - b. 25% of the scrub is Extreme Green color
 - c. 25% of the scrub is white

6. Start with green and begin filling your pet jar by either spooning or piping in scrub. Fill about $\frac{3}{4}$ inch high. Wipe any excess scrub that may have gotten on the sides or top of the jar.
7. Pipe or spoon white scrub about $\frac{3}{4}$ inch into the pet jar. Be careful to not mix together with the green layer. Wipe any excess scrub.
8. Pipe or spoon the final pink scrub layer to fill the jar.
9. Cap & label the scrubs! This product does not need any cure time and can be enjoyed immediately!
